

'WATCH THE FEVER!' IS HOSPITAL FUND RAISERS' SLOGAN

Brooklyn Solicitors Collect $35,000 in Two Days for St. Anthony's.

WOMEN IN THE LEAD.

Campaign to Be Closed With a Dance Next Saturday Night.

"Watch the Fever!" Have you been confronted with that sign on every turn that you have made during the last two days? Well, if you haven't, it's no fault of the Brooklynites, especially those who are interested in the whirlwind campaign fund to raise $150,000 in eight days for the benefit of St. Anthony's Hospital in Woodhaven.

"Watch the Fever!" is their slogan, and you can rest assured that if you haven't caught the fever now, you surely will before the week is ended.

The race started last Friday, with few people interested, and now, owing to their enthusiasm and work, they have spread the spirit until practically every Brooklynite is either working or has pledged half his income.

They have raised $35,000 in two days. That's going some, isn't it, especially when you consider that practically all of it has been obtained in Brooklyn. And the women have obtained by far the greater part of it.

Keen rivalry is now existing among the men and the women of the borough, because, although few of the men are advocates of the Equal Franchise, they were forced to raise a vote of congratulation yesterday afternoon at the luncheon held at the Imperial Hotel. For fully five minutes the walls rang with the cheers, and the leader of every woman's committee was ushered up to the front of the room and forced to make a brief address.

MEN DETERMINED TO EXCEL THE WOMEN.

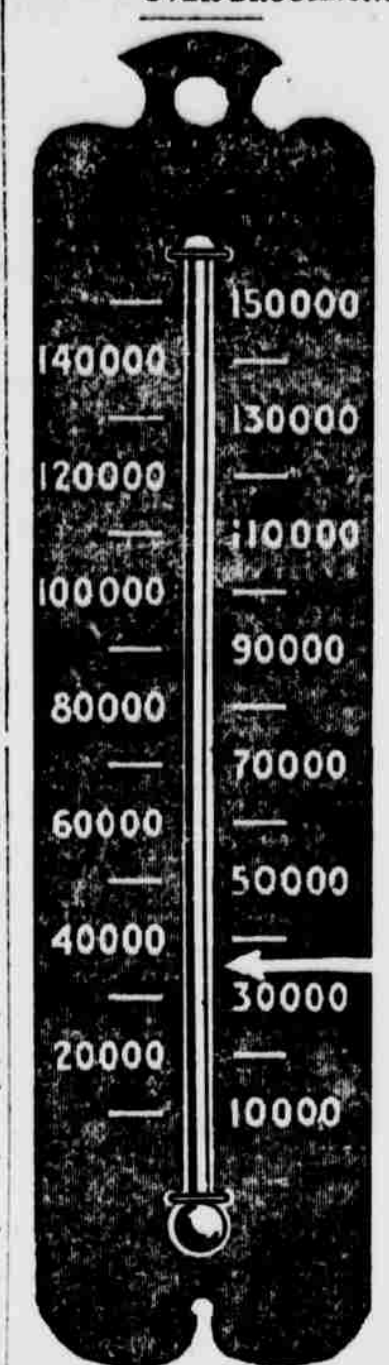

There are two factions among those endeavoring to raise the money, one consisting of twenty-four teams of men and the other of twenty-four teams of women. So far the women are 'way in the lead, and promise to remain so. Nevertheless, the men are fighting gallantly, and have vowed that, be it chivalrous or not, they are going to fight until they win, and will far outshine the women in the end.

One of the greatest hits, and which has probably done more to incite the interest of the suburbanites, is the fact that wherever you turn you are confronted with a "Watch the Fever!" sign. Automobiles, carriages, wagons, store windows, and even private dwellings are completely covered with the sign, and practically every school child in the borough is wearing a small banner bearing the words, "St. Anthony's Hospital for All."

Every day those interested in the campaign meet at the Hotel Imperial for luncheon and listen to some prominent men of the borough make addresses. Ministers of every denomination have been present at various times, and always they have displayed their enthusiasm and praised the good work which will be accomplished when the building is completed. Bishop McDonnell is to be the guest of honor tomorrow.

Commissioner Arthur J. O'Keefe is general manager of the campaign, and he is ably assisted by Justices O'Keefe, Stapleton and Carr. James J. Ryan is head of the men's committee, and Mrs. William J. Carr is director of the women. Every day the team obtaining the most money is presented with a flag which adorns the table during the dinner. At the end of the campaign the team winning the most number of times will be permitted to keep it. So far the men have watched it with en-

CAMPAIGN TO BE CLOSED WITH A DANCE.

The campaign will close on Saturday evening with a dance at the Twenty-third Regiment Armory, and the winning team will be presented with a huge banner.

St. Anthony's Hospital is much needed in Brooklyn, as many of the hospitals there are overcrowded, and are often forced to turn away patients who really need medical attention. At this hospital, however, it will be a rule that no matter what is to be done no one will be refused aid.

A feature of the work to be carried on will be the caring for incurable tuberculosis patients. As yet, none of these patients has a ward equipped for these patients, and many of the poorer class are forced to obtain relief begging charity from their neighbors.

OIL AND STEEL MEN FOND OF CHORUS GIRLS.

Mrs. McCulloch Says So in Discussing Marriage and Divorce Laws for Illinois.

CHICAGO, April 2.—"Those Standard Oil and Steel men always were fond of chorus girls, anyway."

This statement was made last night by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, former Justice of the Peace of Evanston, in an address on marriage and divorce before 100 teachers at the Noyes Grammar School.

Mrs. McCulloch defended the marriage and divorce bills which are before the Illinois Legislature.

"I would urge no woman to marry before she is twenty-five years of age."

Marriages earlier than this result in the women growing old before their time. Records show that 5 per cent of all marriages result in divorce."

ROSE NOT SWEET TO THEM.

Jack Is Barred from Buying Home in Connecticut Town.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., April 2.—That Jack Rose, gambler and sensational witness, is persona non grata in the rural districts of Connecticut has been made plain in Westport, Norwalk and Wilton.

He wanted to buy a country home and selected one in Wilton last Thursday. But no sooner was his identity known than the Village Civic League, the W. C. T. U. and the church societies protested. They made it so warm for H. T. Tracy, whose place Rose wanted, that the option was recalled. Practically similar incidents took place in Westport and Norwalk.
